Dear Natalie,

You have been a valuable member of the College of Education and Human Development Dean's Advisory Board since 2008. Your long career in teaching and educational leadership has provided a special perspective within the group. I am grateful for your commitment to our mission and all you do for CEHD.

With the transition of Susan Holter into the role of Chief Development Officer, the board executive committee met to review board bylaws and membership. As you may know, your current board service term ended on June 30, 2017. I apologize that we did not contact you earlier about this.

I am excited about the momentum of the college, especially the successful Improving Lives campaign, and it's largely because of the involvement of friends like you. Would you be willing to continue serving an additional term, ending June 2020? I would appreciate keeping your feedback and advocacy on the board.

Please let Susan Holter (susan@umn.edu) know if you'd like to remain a board member. She and I are also happy to discuss this further with you.

Natalie, thank you so much for all you've done to advance CEHD as a Dean's Advisory Board member and through your other involvements.

Best wishes,

Jean K. Quam, Ph.D.
Dean and Professor
